

WHEN LIFE BECOMES A NIGHTMARE

(WE KNOW OUR GOD IS FAITHFUL)

7.6.7.6 D Tune Name: FRED'S TUNE

Mary Nelson Keithahn

John D. Horman

Piano

When life be-comes a night - mare that will not go a -
We know our God is faith - ful, and slum-bers not, nor Yet good can come from e - vil by rea - son of God's

4

way,
sleeps.
grace,
and e - vil seems to tri - umph
God hears our prayers of an - guish,
and love can calm the night - mares

7

and ha - tred rules the day, we cry to God in an ger; in God mourns with us and weeps. God grieves that e - vil do - ers, re - that we have come to face. As neigh - bors help a stran - ger and fear and deep de-spair. How can you let this hap - pen ject - ing Love's sweet song would stray from paths of jus - tice oth - ers save a friend, we share the cost of kind - ness,

11

15

while we are in your care? end.
and choose a path so wrong.
one fam - ily to life's

18